The above referenced cases are before this court upon the Special Master's recommendation that the 30(b)(6) deposition subpoena of Wellin & Co. Be quashed, and that a protective order be granted prohibiting the Estate from taking the 30(b)(6) deposition of Wellin & Co.

This court is charged with conducting a de novo review of any portion of the Special Master's report to which a specific objection is registered, and may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendations contained in that report. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). However, absent prompt objection by a dissatisfied party, it appears that Congress did not intend for the district court to review the factual and legal conclusions of the Special Master. Thomas v Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985). Additionally, any party who fails to file timely, written objections to the Special Master's report pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) waives the right to raise those objections at the appellate court level. United States v. Schronce, 727 F.2d 91 (4th Cir. 1984), cert. denied, 467 U.S. 1208 (1984).¹ No objections have been filed to the Special Master's report and recommenda-

¹In Wright v. Collins, 766 F.2d 841 (4th Cir. 1985), the court held "that a pro se litigant must receive fair notification of the consequences of failure to object to a magistrate judge's report before such a procedural default will result in waiver of the right to appeal. The notice must be 'sufficiently understandable to one in appellant's circumstances fairly to appraise him of what is required.'" Id. at 846. Plaintiff was advised in a clear manner that his objections had to be filed within ten (10) days, and he received notice of the consequences at the appellate level of his failure to object to the magistrate judge's report.

A de novo review of the record indicates that the Special Master's report accurately summarizes this case and the applicable law. Accordingly, the Special Master's report and recommendation is AFFIRMED, the Wellin Children's motion to quash the 30(b)(6) deposition subpoena of Wellin & Co. (ECF No. 601 in C/A No. 2:13cv1831 DCN) is GRANTED, and a protective order is granted prohibiting the Estate from taking the 30(b)(6) deposition of Wellin & Co.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
